

Are you tired of getting a hot lap when working with your notebook on your legs?

Thanks to its big base area as well as the adjustable tilt angle that ensures optimal ergonomics, the LapChilla is perfectly suited for both office use and working on your lap. The built-in 220mm fan will provide your laptop with quiet, highly efficient cooling, thereby reducing the risk of heat-related failures.

Weighing only 0.8kg, the LapChilla can be completely collapsed so that it easily fits common laptop bags.

Whether it's on your couch, on campus or in the metro: The LapChilla looks great just about anywhere!
